Dear classmates,

Permit me to use this opportunity to talk about bilingualism and lay bare some advantages one can derive from being _____. First, it is of prime importance to know that, as Cameroonians, it is our _____ to use both English and French because they are our two _____ languages. English, on its part, is a(n) _____ language spoken in many countries around the world. English opens doors to _____; trust me, a _____ job _____ stands lesser chances to get a job as compared to one who is bilingual. As francophones, learning a second language like English is learning a different _____, and the more you know about other people's culture, the easier you can relate to them. So, fellow classmates let us be _____ in French and English for a(n) _____ and peaceful Cameroon. Thanks for your attention.

PART TWO: EVALUATION OF COMPETENCES

SECTION C: READING COMPREHENSION(10 MARKS)

Read the following text and answer the questions below

My name is Kevine, I am 22 years old. When I was in primary school, we used to organise fashion parades with my teacher and friends every Friday. My teacher always told me I had the height of a mannequin so he chose me to compete with other classes. By that time I was still very shy, consequently I could not express all my talents. My teacher wasn't tired of encouraging me. I had my exam and entered secondary school. There I realized that this activity was really put at the front stage, especially during youth weeks. Being only in Form 1 and very young, I had to compete with bigger students without any fear : my primary school teacher had given me enough motivation. We went for training every week and I was taken for the finals.

That day I was stressed up to the extent of almost renouncing but I believed in myself, we had to showcase in three runs; traditional, beach and evening attires. My family was there to encourage me. After our three parades, the jury gave the results and I was the third. Eventhough I didn't win, I was not discouraged. I continued with my studies very well till the class of upper sixth where I postulated to become the miss of my school. This time I was the second. I was disappointed but still very motivated. I decided to continue training myself while waiting for another opportunity to present. I can say fashion parade is my hobby because I can't do something else apart from it during my leisure time.

Some weeks ago, I received a call from a very big production house in France where I was asked to begin a career as & mannequin internationale&. I couldn't believe, I thought I was dreaming! So all my efforts were seen? Who told them about me? How did they get my number? It's certainly on my facebook page since I usually poste some videos of me showcasing. Oh Go is great!

I've been at the delegation of national security to have a passport and at the embassy of France to obtain my visa. I had these documents with no delay, since i was travelling on invitation. This evening, at 7pm i will be taking my first flight, thanks to my leisure activity. All i wish to tell you is to never give up. Even if you are not where you are supposed to be, continue working aand working because only work pays. My father, mother, brothers and friends are so proud of me and i won't stop working in order not to disappoint them.
